

Secrets of Successful College Applicants

A free seminar for students and parents

Offered by Collegewise™

Seniors, no matter where you are applying to college—USC, UCLA, or a small private school that could never beat either of those two at football—there are always things you can do to improve your chances of admission. Students and parents are invited to join the counselors at Collegewise for “Secrets of Successful College Applicants,” a free seminar where we’ll share some of the strategies we’ve perfected and used to help nearly 3000 students in our Collegewise programs get accepted to college.

- Find out what you can still do this summer to be a stronger college applicant.
- Learn the best ways to present yourself in college applications.
- All attendees will receive a free copy of our tips, “Five Things Applicants Do that Annoy Admissions Officers.”
