

Dr. Brad Bekkedahl elected to Ports-to-Plains Board

In conjunction with the annual conference, Ports-to-Plains held their annual membership meeting for the election of Ports-to-Plains Board Members.

Dr. Brad Bekkedahl of Williston, North Dakota was elected to serve on the Ports-to-Plains Board of Directors as a representative of Theodore Roosevelt Expressway. Dr. Bekkedahl also serves as City Commissioner for Williston, North Dakota where he was born and raised. He was an honor society graduate of Williston High School and attended Jamestown College in North Dakota where he received a bachelor's degree (Magna Cum Laude) in biology and minored in chemistry and sociology. Brad then furthered his education at the University of Minnesota where he received his DDS degree in 1984 in dental surgery.

Board member names whose term of office expires in 2008 were listed on the ballots. Members re-elected to serve for the next two years are Sid Cauthorn, Del Rio, Texas; Tom Martin, Lubbock, Texas; Ronnye Farmer, Boise City, Oklahoma; Leroy Mauch, Lamar, Colorado; Don Morrison, Limon, Colorado; and Dwain Morrison, San Angelo, Texas. Justin Bennett of Des Moines, New Mexico was officially elected to serve his first term on the board after the resignation of Mike Running, previously from Clayton.

For more information and bios on each of the Ports-to-Plains Board Members and staff, go to www.portstoplains.com.

LEARN • PARTICIPATE • JOIN

www.portstoplains.com